The marketing and advertising firm RedRover Company has found new space that matches its creative side.

The nearly five-year-old firm is graduating from the business incubator EmergeMemphis at 516 Tennessee to its own place in Suite 121 of The 415 Building, 415 S. Front.

"The space fits our brand's personality," managing partner Lori Turner said. "Previously housing an architectural firm, the space has interesting architectural elements, including translucent walls and modern lighting, not to mention all the natural light from the vintage plate glass windows that surround the space."

RedRover has signed a two-year lease for 2,000 square feet.

Ed Thomas of Colliers Wilkinson Snowden represented RedRover. Robert Taylor represented the landlord, Raspberry Commercial Real Estate.
